

Beautiful Minds Repairs Souls

Thoughts flow from mind to mind making us who we are.
Rarely and sometimes for only a brief time they come together and create a Beautiful Mind that can restore people's souls that have stopped hoping and dreaming.

Close your eyes and Dream of an experience from your childhood. Remember it as if you are your actually there again. For Beautiful Mind not a single atom that is in their body today was there when that event took place. Beautiful Minds keeps changing because Matter and thoughts keeps changing them until their Tender words and touch can heal sick souls.

If your mind comes together with a Beautiful Blooming Mind that is full of Life your soul will start to dream again. Because Beautiful Minds promotes happiness, and hope allowing you to dream doing lives storms.

At one time, I have Beautiful Minds growing in my garden and I flourish. Now with no Beautiful Minds growing in my garden, my soul slowly became sick and I close my eyes, stop dreaming, believing, and trusting people.

On Sunday, I was worried. I know I needed to keep my appointment with my heart doctor on Friday.

On Monday a Beautiful Mind, touch me and my eyes open to what I have become, and I started dreaming and hoping again as my heart started to heal.

A touch of a Beautiful Mind awakes the butterfly and the butterfly Dreams new dreams

Pray of me.
